

Save the Date!

CERCLL Summer 2017 Workshop Series

Visual, Media, and Digital Literacies in the Foreign Language Classroom

May 30 to June 9, 2017
University of Arizona

Join us for the following workshops:

Elyse Petit (University of Arizona) - Give a Voice to Students: Implementing Digital Storytelling in Foreign/Second Language Classrooms

Sébastien Dubreil (Carnegie Mellon University) - Culture Frames: Using Film and Video in the L2 Classroom

Beatrice Dupuy (University of Arizona) - Digital Social Reading: Reading and Viewing Together

Chantelle Warner (University of Arizona) - Foreign Languages and the Literary in the Everyday (FLLITE): Teaching Texts in the L2 Classroom

Jonathon Reinhardt (University of Arizona) - Gameful Foreign Language Teaching: Engaging Learners with Digital Insights

Maker Day - An additional day of making materials and lessons based on the workshop series

Travel awards will be available for the FLLITE workshop (June 6-7)

See the website for details about the series

tinyurl.com/summerPD17

